

Title:	Cognitive tourism and sightseeing
Lecture hours:	30
Study period: (summer/winter)	winter, summer
Number of credits	4
Assessment methods:	Graded credit
Language of instruction:	English
Prerequisites:	Course for tourism and recreation students
Course content:	Natural and cultural tourist attractions in Poland (the oldest, the unique and the largest objects and places); <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Polish places on the UNESCO World Heritage List; - Polish national parks and landscapes parks; - Polish natural and cultural tourist trails; - Polish tourist regions, - Polish traditions and customs. - the common sightseeing trips.
Learning outcomes:	K01 - Student knows basic terms related to tourism and sightseeing (K_W01) K02 - Student has knowledge about Polish tourist attractions (K_W02) S01 - Student performs simple tasks related to tourism and sightseeing and takes part in sightseeing trips (K_U03, K_U07) C01 - Student actively participates in sightseeing tours in various roles (participant, guide) (K_K02) C02 - Students acts ethically and responsibly, recognizes the need to preserve and protect the values of cultural and natural heritage (K_K03)
Name of lecturer:	Dr Alicja Gonia
Email address:	alagon@ukw.edu.pl