

Title:	Historical narratives in the contemporary world
Lecture hours:	15
Study period:	winter
Number of credits:	5 ECTS
Assessment methods:	Projects
Language of instruction:	English
Prerequisites:	English A2/B1
Course content:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Historical narratives - basic terminology and introduction to the subject. 2. Historical narratives in the selected European countries 3. Historical narratives in the selected American countries 4. Historical narratives in the selected African countries. 5. Historical narratives in the selected Asian countries. 6. Historical narratives in the selected countries of Australia and Pacific.
Learning outcomes:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students know basic terminology in the field of the subject. 2. Students can read and understand English-language texts in the field of the subject. 3. Students can write a short text related to the subject matter. 4. Students can explore and evaluate the sources related to the subject matter. 5. Students are able to independently analyse the issues discussed during the lectures.
Name of lecturer:	dr Krzysztof Garczewski
Contact address) (email address):	garczewski@ukw.edu.pl
Literature:	The politics of memory in postwar Europe, R. N. Lebow, W. Kansteiner and C. Fogu (eds.), Durham - London 2006. Twenty years after communism: the politics of memory and commemoration, M. Bernhard and J. Kubik (ed.), Oxford - New York 2014. Historical narratives and Christian identity on a European periphery: early history writing in Northern, East-Central, and Eastern Europe, ed. by I. H. Garipzanov (ed.), Turnhout: Brepols 2011.