

Title:	Private International Law
Lecture hours:	30 hours
Study period: (summer/winter)	Winter and summer
Number of credits:	5
Assessment methods:	Project on a chosen topic – glossary to court judgment and written or oral test
Language of instruction:	English
Prerequisites:	Communicative level in English.
Course content:	The concept of conflict of laws. Constructing a conflict rule. Sending away. Public Order Clause. Personal law. Law applicable to contractual obligations. International contract law. Law of international contracts for the sale of goods. Law applicable to non-contractual obligations. Legal status. Statute of intangible goods. Family law. Inheritance law.
Learning outcomes:	The aim of the course is for students to acquire the ability to decide which law is applicable in civil law relations with a foreign element. In addition. The student will gain knowledge of international contract law with an emphasis on international commercial contracts from the perspective of the European Union. The comparative method of law analysis will also be presented.
Name of lecturer:	Dr hab. Marek Salamonowicz, prof. UKW
Contact (email address):	salamonowicz.marek@gmail.com
Literature:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Geert von Calster, European Private International Law: Commercial Litigation in the EU, Bloomsbury 2021. 2. Franco Ferrari, Diego P. Fernández Arroyo, Private International Law. Contemporary Challenges and Continuing Relevance, Elgar 2021. 3. Anatol Dutta, Wolfgang Wurmnest, European Private International Law and Member State Treaties with Third States. The Case of the European Succession Regulation, Intersentia Publishing 2019.