

Title:	Child and family support – working with families in crisis
Lecture hours:	30
Study period: (summer/winter)	summer /winter
Number of credits:	6 ECTS
Assessment methods:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Presentation – Students will prepare a presentation on a selected problems 2. Active participation in the discussion 3. Regular participation
Language of instruction:	English
Prerequisites:	knowledge of English (B2)
Course content:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A child in a situation of separation and divorce of parents 2. Illness and mourning in the family 3. Family towards the child's disability 4. Domestic violence 5. Addictions in the family 6. Suicidal problems in the family 7. Crisis intervention. Action plan with a family in crisis 8. Selected areas of support 9. Strategies for dealing with crisis situations
Learning outcomes:	The student: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -will have basic knowledge of health, disease, disabilities and their types, knows mechanisms related to functioning in health, illness and disabilities -will have knowledge of how to educate the public in the field of prevention and rational behavior in crisis situations -will be able to recognize various causes of possible crisis events and react in order to avoid them or minimize their effects -will be able to co-create procedures for dealing with crisis events at various levels -will be able to independently acquire knowledge and develop his/her professional skills, using various sources (in his/her native and foreign language) and modern technologies
Name of lecturer:	Monika Lewicka, PhD
Contact (email address):	Monika.Magdalena.Lewicka@gmail.com