

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Title of the course:	Attachment: Theory & Research
Lecture hours:	15
Study period: (summer/winter semester)	Summer semester
Number of credits:
Assessment methods:	The final test: (70%) <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Written exam with multiple choice and open-ended questions (70% of final grade) and will include one open question testing students' knowledge or/and problem-solving.▪ Will be based on the indicated readings and lecture materials. Presentation of chosen articles during the meeting (30%)
Language of instruction:	ENGLISH
Prerequisites:	No
Course content:	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Theories underlying attachment theory2. Attachment development in early childhood3. Attachment in a romantic relationship4. Attachment Assessment5. Intergenerational Transmission of Attachment6. Cultural context of attachment theory
Learning outcomes:	This course is designed to help students meet the following goals: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. To understand the foundations of attachment2. To understand the mechanisms of attachment activation/deactivation3. To understand individual differences in attachment4. To understand the specific of attachment in a romantic relationship5. To evaluate the cultural differences in attachment patterns
Name of lecturer:	Dr Karolina Głogowska
Email address:	glogowska.karolina@gmail.com