

Title:	Geography of settlements
Lecture hours:	15
Study period: (summer/winter)	winter, summer
Number of credits:	3
Assessment methods:	Graded credit
Language of instruction:	English
Prerequisites:	Course for geography and tourism and recreation students
Course content:	Analysis of the rural settlement network using cartographic sources Analysis of the urban settlement network using cartographic sources Analysis of the morphological and functional-spatial structure of cities and their physiognomy, cartographic elaboration Analysis of selected phenomena and processes taking place in urban space (gentrification, revitalisation, commercialisation, deindustrialisation, etc.) - field work
Learning outcomes:	K01 - student has basic knowledge of settlement geography (K_W01, K_W04, K_W07) S01 - the student is able to acquire, analyze, interpret information from various sources concerning the settlement (K_U03, K_U04, K_U08). S02 - the student is able to perform commissioned simple tasks in the field of settlement geography under the supervision of an academic supervisor C01 - student can work in a group.
Name of lecturer:	dr Hanna Michniewicz-Ankiersztajn
Email address:	hanka@ukw.edu.pl