

Title:	Applied Geography
Lecture hours:	30
Study period: (summer/winter)	winter, summer
Number of credits	3
Assessment methods:	Graded credit
Language of instruction:	English
Prerequisites:	Course for geography students
Course content:	Latitude, longitude, lime and geographical coordinates; Map projections, map scale; Contours and topographic maps; Water balance and water systems; Global climate systems; Fluvial geomorphology; Glacial geomorphology, Zoogeomorphology
Learning outcomes:	K01 - Student knows basic terms related to geography, K02 - Student has knowledge about maps, S01 - Student performs simple tasks related to geography (geomorphology, hydrology and other), C01 - Student actively participates in field works, C02 - Students acts ethically and responsibly, recognizes the need to preserve and protect the environments
Name of lecturer:	dr Mirosław Rurek
Email address:	mirur@ukw.edu.pl