

Title:	Water Resources in Tourism and Recreation
Lecture hours:	15
Study period: (summer/winter)	summer
Number of credits:	3
Assessment methods:
Language of instruction:	English
Prerequisites:
Course content:	Introduction part: water resources - basic definitions and data, water resources in Poland, touristic use of water, water sports, associated infrastructure, waterfronts - surface water - rivers, lakes, artificial reservoirs - ground water - healing water, thermal water Field part (field exercises): field visits on selected objects
Learning outcomes:	K01 - student has basic knowledge about the aquatic environment, forms of water occurrence in nature, water resources on Earth K02 - student knows the types of tourism resources related to the water environment and knows the basic forms of tourism and recreation using water objects S01 - student is able to justify the value of selected water resources for tourism and recreation
Name of lecturer:	Brzezińska Marta, mgr
Email address:	m.brzezinska@ukw.edu.pl